The quarterly examination of police officials by the license commissioners was held yesterday afternoon. The police reported conditions under the license law better than at any time since it has been in effect. It was the opinion of the officials examined that if the street lights were kept burning all night the work of capturing house breakers, etc. would be much easier. While not a matter under the jurisdiction of the commissioners they recommended its consideration by the proper officials.

That the public appreciate shows of the better class is vouched for by the large numbers who visit the Castle Park each night to see the plays produced by the Lorne Elwyn Co. Last night a much larger number attended and seemingly enjoyed the performance of "The Gambler." The play was of Western style, full of strength and action and proved a good medium for a display of Mr. Elwyn's acting. Miss Gladys Grey was charming and most enjoyable as Nell, the little girl of the mines, who is always around just in time. The specialties continue to make a most decided hit. Tonight the public will have an opportunity to see this excellent company produce Tolstol's masterpiece, "The Resurrection." We advise the ladies to see this version of the great play.
